

Trusted supply base options with flexible solutions

Litmus has undertaken a stringent and detailed market analysis to determine which specialist suppliers can be recommended to our clients. Delta Procurement provides end-to-end purchasing solutions for the foodservice sector.

Intelligent purchasing has never been so vital to foodservice businesses as it is now.

Delta are the experts in delivering procurement solutions in this sector. Delta offer a unique buying proposition that enables clients to optimise their advantages for better business results.

Partnering with Delta offers our clients the power of national accounts to efficiently purchase and control key categories and products.

Cost reduction does not have to come at the loss of quality of provenance and through our national and local networks Delta has an appropriate solution for all types of organisation.

Delta will offer the stability and value that foodservice companies require in a procurement partner.

REVIEW

Our first priority is to understand your business, the current processes and the results you wish to achieve

IDENTIFY

We will identify and recommend opportunities for improvement within margin, quality, logistics and supply efficiency

IMPLEMENT

If you choose to work with Delta and take advantage of our recommendations we will work with all stakeholders in the business to make sure any transition is seamless

MANAGE

Our team offer expert management of the supply base and logistics throughout the entirety of our agreement

DELIVER

We are constantly challenging ourselves to improve our value to your business, backed up through management reports, data and analysis

Delta focuses on 3 key priorities to help you improve your business performance:

- Maximum cost reduction through supply chain evaluation
- Driving increased value through unique supplier relationships
- Accurate control, efficiency and management data through e-systems

To take advantage of the special terms that Litmus have negotiated with Delta then please contact Phil Silva – Partner, Central Services - philsilva@litmuspartnership.co.uk - who will make the necessary introduction.

